

RIVERVIEW DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI 2011

On January 7, 2012, Riverview honored nine inductees to the second class of the Riverview Distinguished Alumni. The class included Chad Beynon, Richard DeTar, Paul Federici, Jane King, Jay Kumar, Marilyn Ley Kray, Stephen Martin, Todd Massack, and John Templin. A reception and award ceremony culminated a wonderful evening. Please enjoy the photos on the next few pages.

Superintendent, Dr. Charles Erdeljac, Principal, Mr. Jay Moser and Assistant Principal, Mr. Jeff Hadley welcome and address the inductees and their guests.

Over 100 invited guests enjoyed wonderful hors d'oeuvres and desserts prepared by the Riverview Foods II Class, under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Barb Stuart.

The meal was served by members of the National Honor Society.

Jay Kumar—Class of 1978

Paul Federici—Class of 1981

Todd Massack—Class of 1984

Richard DeTar—Class of 1982

Stephen Martin—Class of 1987

Jane King—Class of 1989

John Templin—Class of 1972

Chad Beynon—Class of 1998

Marilyn Ley Kray—Class of 1979 (not pictured)

Former Riverview Principal Mr. Allan Kennedy and Mr. Moser. Mr. Kennedy was the principal at Riverview Jr-Sr High School from 1971 to 1991.

Assistant Principal Jeff Hadley, Superintendent Chuck Erdeljac and Principal Jay Moser enjoy the evening's festivities.

Jane King, Class of 1989
reminisces of her days at Riverview.

She had stellar remarks about her teachers at RHS.

She was very honored to be nominated and chosen as one of this year's awardees.

Richard DeTar thanked many teachers and coaches who helped mold his early years.

He was happy to share the podium with the other members of the Second Distinguished Alumni Class.

He was happy to share time
with his daughter on the trip to the event.

John Templin spoke highly about his days at Riverview and the wonderful teachers.

He is honored to be a part of the second Alumni class.

John traveled from California for the event.

Dr. Stephen Martin accepting congratulations from Superintendent Erdeljac.

Stephen is a practicing family physician and researcher in Massachusetts.

Marilyn Ley Kray (Class of 1979) sent her regrets that she was not able to attend due to business commitments. Her niece, Dena Shiflan spoke on her behalf. Many of Marilyn's family members were in attendance at the evening's event.

Chad Beynon is the youngest member of this year's Distinguished Alumni Class. Chad is an up and coming businessman in a Wall Street firm.

Chad credits his family and teachers for his success.

Paul Federici thanks the many teachers and especially his coaches for their guidance and encouragement.

Paul resides in Iowa where he is in his fifth season working with Iowa's football program as Director of Athletic Training Services.

Jay Kumar once set a career rushing record at Riverview. Now is he helping college students obtain affordable housing at his Eagle Park Apartments in Clarion.

Jay and his wife, Charlene, live in Oakmont with their four children.

Jay was both honored and humbled by the honor he received.

Todd Massack, Head Riverview Football Coach is happy to be back coaching where he once played. He credits his mentor, Chuck Wagner, for his success.

Todd is a teacher at Fox Chapel High School and lives in Oakmont.

His grandfather was a former football coach and teacher at Oakmont High School, Elmer "Tuggles" Gross.

The Way They Were!

esses who have supported the Raiders by making this yearbook possible. (noun); Seniors (sen 'yers) 1. The graduating class, those students who are leaving one phase of their lives and beginning another. 2. The leaders. (noun); Underclassmen (un 'der klas men) 1. The students who gradually mature in all ways while waiting to become seniors. 2. The followers. (noun); Faculty (fak 'el ti) The dedicated individuals who have supported the Raiders by making this yearbook possible. (noun); Faculty (fak 'el ti) The dedicated individuals who have supported the Raiders by making this yearbook possible. (noun)

Riverview High School (riv 'er vu hi skul) 1. The place where pride and spirit develop through academics, activities, and athletics. 2. Home of the Mighty Raiders. (noun)

Students to develop character, responsibility, and leadership through individual and group participation. (noun); Advertisements (ad 'ver tiz 'ments) The pages paid for by local merchants and businesses which have supported the Raiders by making this yearbook possible. (noun); Seniors (sen 'yers) 1. The graduates, those students who are leaving one phase of their lives and beginning another. 2. The leaders. (noun); Underclassmen (un 'der klas men) 1. The students who gradually mature in all ways while waiting to become seniors. 2. The followers. (noun); Faculty (fak 'el ti) The dedicated individuals who have supported the Raiders by making this yearbook possible. (noun)