Nominated by his mother, Joanne Brownlee

At Riverview, Steven was an honor student and involved in Ski Club, Tennis Team, Golf Team, and Key Club.

Steven graduated with a BA from the University of Pennsylvania and went on to receive his Medical Doctorate from Temple University. Steven served as a resident physician in the internal medicine program at Mercy Hospital. He earned a Master of Business Administration Degree from Carnegie Mellon University and is currently the National Knowledge Domain Manager for Pharmaceuticals and Life Science at PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) in Tampa, Florida.

Steven is currently attending law school at Stetson Law School in Gulfport, Florida.

Sigrid Hammer Wolf

Riverview High School Class of 1981
Nominated by her mother, Carol Hammer

At Riverview, Sigrid was a member of Chorus, Junior and Senior Class play where she took the role as student director.

Sigrid's high school experiences led her to find a career in stage set design and construction. She has won many scenic design awards at the Kennedy Center and the Inland Empire Theater League.

During her career, Sigrid has appeared in two "Junkyard Wars" segments, worked on six independent films in Los Angeles, and taught a class in home improvement for women.

Sigrid is currently negotiating a TV host position for a program on home improvements.

Bob Shoop

Riverview High School Class of 1984
Nominated by his former football coach,
Chuck Wagner

At Riverview, Bob was a member of the Football, Basketball, and Baseball Teams. He was also an honor roll student. Bob is a graduate of Yale University where he played football and was named to the All-Ivy League as a receiver.

For many years Bob coached football on the college level, including Assistant Coach at ARMY and Head Coach at Columbia University. Currently, Bob is the Defensive Coordinator at the College of William and Mary in Virginia which has one of the top defenses in the country. Bob was recently named to the A-K Valley Hall of Fame.

Gary Rogers

Riverview High School Class of 1976
Nominated by his daughter, Kate Rogers, and his friend, Summer Tissue

Gary was very active at Riverview participating in Marching Band, Concert Band, Pep Band, and Stage Band. He was also a member of Student Council, the Junior Class Committee, and National Honor Society.

Gary is a local historian and the true example of a community volunteer. As a member of the Oakmont Historical Club, Oakmont Chamber of Commerce and Oakmont Newspaper, Gary gives hundreds of hours serving others. He has dedicated his time, writing talents, and voice to help the community where he grew up. Gary spends much of his time researching Oakmont history and bringing it to others. He has written two books on the local history of Oakmont, Tales of Our Towns and Edgewater. The proceeds of these books have been donated to the Oakmont Library to promote education and research.

Kathy Roth Pizzella

Riverview High School Class of 1992
Nominated by her mother, Joan Roth

At Riverview, Kathy participated in AFS, French Club, Student Council, Pompon, Drama Club Head Usher, National Honor Society, Mock Trial, AIU Apprenticeships for Astronomy and Animal Behavior, Tennis, Junior Class Secretary, and the Senior Class Committee. Kathy graduated as Valedictorian of her class.

Kathy continued her studies at Pennsylvania State University where she graduated Summa Cum Laude. While there she provided services to the Community Health Center and Campus Diversity Programs. After graduation, she attended the Palmer College of Chiropractic and graduated as a Presidential Scholar.

Dr. Roth has returned to Oakmont to serve the community with Chiropractic and Wellness Services at Health Horizons. She also directs the Well Child Program, a monthly community service event to provide chiropractic care to children 13 and under. Kathy also presents workshops on a variety of health issues at Health Horizons and for organizations and companies in the Pittsburgh area.

Scott Higgins

Riverview High School Class of 1980
Nominated by his former teacher and football coach, Chuck Wagner

As a senior, Scott was captain of four Riverview Varsity Sports. He was also chosen Outstanding Male Athlete by his senior class. He was an honor roll student and a member of the Varsity Club.

Scott went to Westminster College where he was an outstanding athlete, twice winning the Kodak All-American Award in football as a defensive back and baseball. After college, Scott competed for a spot on the Cleveland Browns roster. Scott is a youth leader in his community, having coached little league, girls' basketball and soccer. Today, Scott is very successful in the business world, having worked for Ford Motor Company for many years. He is presently the Regional Manager of Customer Support.

Gregg Holden

Riverview High School Class of 1977
Nominated by retired Riverview teacher Frank Semper

At Riverview, Gregg was a member of the Baseball Team (captain) and Football Team, as well as a member of the National Honor Society.

Gregg graduated from the University of Pittsburgh in 1981 with a BA in Speech and Communications.

Shortly afterward, he entered the United States Air Force and Officer Training School and was commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant in 1986. Subsequently, Gregg attended the Euro-NATO Joint Jet Pilot Training program and enjoyed a career as a pilot in military aviation for 22 years. He participated in ten global conflict operations including Operation Desert Shield, Operation Desert Storm, Operation Enduring Freedom, and Operation Iraqi Freedom. He retired from the US Air Force in 2009 achieving the rank of Lieutenant Colonel.

Gregg received numerous medals and awards during his distinguished military career. However, his greatest triumph and most heroic achievement came from winning the war against Waldenstrom's Macroglobulinemia. This is a severe type of blood cancer that required a bone marrow transplant in 2004.

He is presently working as a commercial pilot for American Airlines based out of New York City and also serves as a motivational public speaker for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society in Lehigh Valley, Pennsylvania.

Kristopher Howard

Riverview High School Class of 2000
Nominated by retired Riverview teacher
Patricia Black

In high school, Kris was a member of the Football and Basketball Teams. He was also a member of the National Honor Society, Key Club (President-12), Spanish Club (President-12), and Valedictorian of his class.

While attending Carnegie Mellon University, Kris was awarded the Dow Chemical Outstanding Junior Award and chosen to be a member of the Andrew Carnegie Society. Kris also graduated Valedictorian of his Chemical Engineering class at Carnegie Mellon.

Kris currently works as an international employee for Merck and has traveled to thirty countries and many different cities throughout the world. He has been fortunate to have seen four of the new wonders of the world.

In order to give back, Kris has found time to mentor teens in juvenile prison, teach math to Mexican immigrants, volunteer to teach kindergarten in a shanty town in Argentina, and tutor students in chemistry.

Kris is currently living in Ireland.

Tim Kaiser

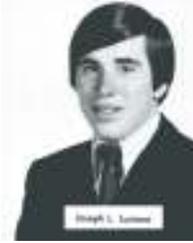

Riverview High School Class of 1981
Nominated by his former teacher and football
coach, Chuck Wagner

As a Riverview senior, Tim was captain of the Football, Track and Physical Fitness Team. He was also a member of the VUE Staff, Varsity Club, and Concert Band. Tim continued his studies at Westminster College where he was an outstanding student athlete.

Moving to California, Tim became a leading television producer with shows such as Seinfeld and Will & Grace. He is currently working on production of a new sitcom, Bleep, My Dad Says that will air on CBS on Thursdays.

Joseph Luciana, III

Riverview High School Class of 1972
Nominated by his neighbor and friend, Patty Anthony

At Riverview, Joseph was a high honor roll student and a member of the Football, Basketball, and Baseball Teams, and Varsity Club.

Joe is a graduate of Carnegie Mellon University (Engineering) and the Duquesne University School of Law. He practiced with the law firm of Kirkpatrick and Lockhart for over twenty years and recently started his own legal firm: Dingess, Foster, Luciana, Davidson and Chleboski, LLP. He has been honored as a Pennsylvania Super Lawyer (2005, 2009-2010), Best Lawyers (2010, 2011), Pittsburgh's Best Lawyers (2010), and Pennsylvania Super Lawyers, Corporate Counsel Edition (2010).

Joe has been actively involved in the Oakmont-Verona community, serving as the past President of the Riverview Athletic Association. He has also been a coach for both boys and girls baseball and basketball since 2001.

David Ricupero

Riverview High School Class of 1975
Nominated by his daughter, Crystal Manke

At Riverview, Dave was a member of the Football and Track Teams.

For the past 21 years, David has been the owner of the very successful Verona business, Ricupero's Auto Detailing. He was elected Mayor of Verona in 2010 after 19 years of service on the Borough Council and 20 years as a member of the Verona Chamber of Commerce. Dave is involved in many community activities such as the Verona Fall Festival, Verona in Progress, Verona Borough Newsletter, the Verona War Memorial, and the Fallen Officer Memorial.
