3. You must continue to visit one of the persons listed, if you need treatment, for ninety (90) days from the date of your first visit. If you do not comply with this requirement, your employer will be relieved from liability for payment of services rendered during this period.
4. After this ninety day period, if you still need treatment and your employer has provided a list as set forth above, you may choose to go to another licensed physician or practitioner of the healing arts for treatment. You must notify your employer of this action within five (5) days of your visit to the person of your choice. Failure to notify your employer will relieve the employer from liability for payment for services rendered prior to appropriate notice if the services are determined to have been unreasonable or unnecessary.
5. The physician or practitioner of the healing arts who treats you must file a report on a form provided by the Bureau of Workers' Compensation (Form LIBC-9) within ten (10) days of the commencement of treatment and at least once a month as long as treatment continues. A copy of the report must be furnished to you and to your employer. The employer is not liable for payment of any treatment until a report has been filed.
6. If no list is provided above (No. 2), you may go to a licensed physician or practitioner of the healing arts of your choice.
7. If one of the persons listed above refers you to another licensed specialist, your employer or his insurer will pay the bill for these services.
8. If you are faced with a medical emergency, you may secure assistance from a hospital or physician or practitioner of the healing arts of your choice.
9. If the designated provider recommends invasive surgery, you are entitled to receive an additional opinion from any health care provider of my choice. If the additional opinion differs from that of the designated provider, you are entitled to select which course of treatment to follow. However, if you choose to follow the recommendation of your health care provider (the additional opinion), the procedure shall be performed by one or more of the designated health care providers for a period of ninety (90) days from the date of the visit to your health care provider (date of examination of the additional opinion).

REMEMBER - IT IS IMPORTANT TO TELL YOUR EMPLOYER ABOUT YOUR INJURY
