COMMITTEE REPORTS

EDUCATION COMMITTEE Mrs. Ashbaugh mentioned that the next official meeting is August 19. She hoped all will be able to attend the American Legion presentation Friday. The Awards Presentation will be held on May 30. We should be proud of our move up in the Pittsburgh Business Times – now ranked 25th. Dr. DiNinno reminded everyone that Senator Costa will be visiting the high school tomorrow at 1:00 pm. She also mentioned the nice article in the Tribune Review regarding Give Back Day. Mrs. Ashbaugh also mentioned the Steam Showcase is scheduled for May 23 and the Tenth Street Art Show held on May 7 was a wonderful event.

FINANCE Ms. Good mentioned that at this stage in the budget, there are items that require decisions: Can we proceed with uniforms, decision regarding box truck, and air conditioning units. Areas of the roof need to be replaced. There are quite of few bad sections that have been resealed and rubberized and are starting to separate. We need to do something.

STUDENT LIFE Mr. DiClaudio mentioned that the prom was last weekend. Keystone testing will start tomorrow. Congratulations to Preston Proctor for his Gene Kelly nomination. The next Student Life meeting is scheduled for June 17. Mrs. Ashbaugh mentioned that Girls Softball playoffs are beginning.

FORBES/LEGISLATIVE Dr. Loeffler mentioned that elections are coming up. All things are going well at Forbes. Encourage your friends and relatives to look into Forbes. Graduation is set for May 22 at Highlands, Pacific Avenue, Natrona Heights.

EASTERN AREA Mrs. Aughenbaugh mentioned that she has nothing additional to report.

SOLICITOR'S REPORT Mr. Muscante shared his written report. Any questions can be discussed during Executive Session.

HEARING OF CITIZENS Several residents had comments during the hearing of citizens: One resident commented on a tax increase encouraging the board not to raise taxes; another mentioned the PJAS students going to State College this weekend for finals; one thanked the board for kindergarten orientation – everyone there was very welcoming; one asked for contact information of the Athletic Director; one mentioned the upcoming Elementary Orchestra Concert; one mentioned a book signing for Rachelle Poth at our Jr/Sr High School. One non-resident asked to speak to extend an invitation to our resident youth for their tackle football and cheerleading program. Mark Capsambelis, teacher union president, shared that he is stepping down as union president and stated that he was hoping for fresh ideas and leadership.
