

English 9 Honors

Dear Students and Parents,

Attached you will find the plans that I have prepared for the next few weeks of school while our normal school schedule is disrupted. I have attempted to give you assignments to enhance your learning experience and for us to keep moving forward in our learning. You will need to complete each assignment on your own to the best of your abilities. I will be available if you have any questions at kallen@rsd.k12.pa.us and I will try to answer you as quickly as possible.

Students in the Honors English 9 course should continue to follow the assigned reading schedule for The Good Earth. Students should continue to complete the discussion questions as given. The reading schedule is attached for reference.

Additionally, students should continue to read their independent reading project book and then to complete the project, scheduled to be due on Friday, March 20, 2020.

If needed, additional assignments will be provided at a later date. Please let me know if you have any questions regarding the assignments.

Sincerely, Mrs. Allen
