

Mr. Capsambelis

Lesson plans for 5/26/20-5/29/20

Honors Calculus 1 and Pre-Calculus

All of my assignments will be setup through Microsoft Teams. Students should log in to their account and check the class channel. There will be a post (or multiple posts) with the assignments for the day. They can also click on the assignment tab at the top to see what assignments they need to complete.

Students should feel free to contact me through the team chat if they have questions. (or email me)

Here is my contact information if you have any questions:
