Jim Ashbaugh

Jim is a 1982 graduate of Riverview High School. He holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Duquesne University and a Certificate in Human Resource Management at the Master's Level from La Roche College.

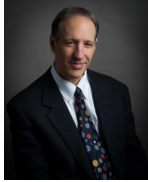

Jim is a dedicated employee at SiGenix, Inc. in Monroeville as the Office Manager for the last ten years. He has also been very involved in the community as a Councilman in Verona from 1988-1992 and has served on the Riverview Athletic Association (RAA) Board for over eight years as the Fast-pitch Commissioner.

In addition, he has coached softball and fast-pitch teams for the RAA for 11 years and stepped up to coach the Riverview High School Softball Team last spring. He also established the junior high softball team for Riverview last year.

Jim has also volunteered for the Verona Fall Festival for several years. Furthermore, he is also very involved with the Oakmont United Methodist Church, as he serves on the Staff and Parish Relations Committee, teaches an Adult Bible Study Class each Sunday, and has been the Head Usher for over 20 years.

Jim resides in Verona with his wife, Lisa, and daughters, Angela and Candice.

Domenic Dozzi

Domenic is a 1978 graduate of Riverview. He also holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Pittsburgh and is a graduate of the GSIA Executive Program from Carnegie Mellon University.

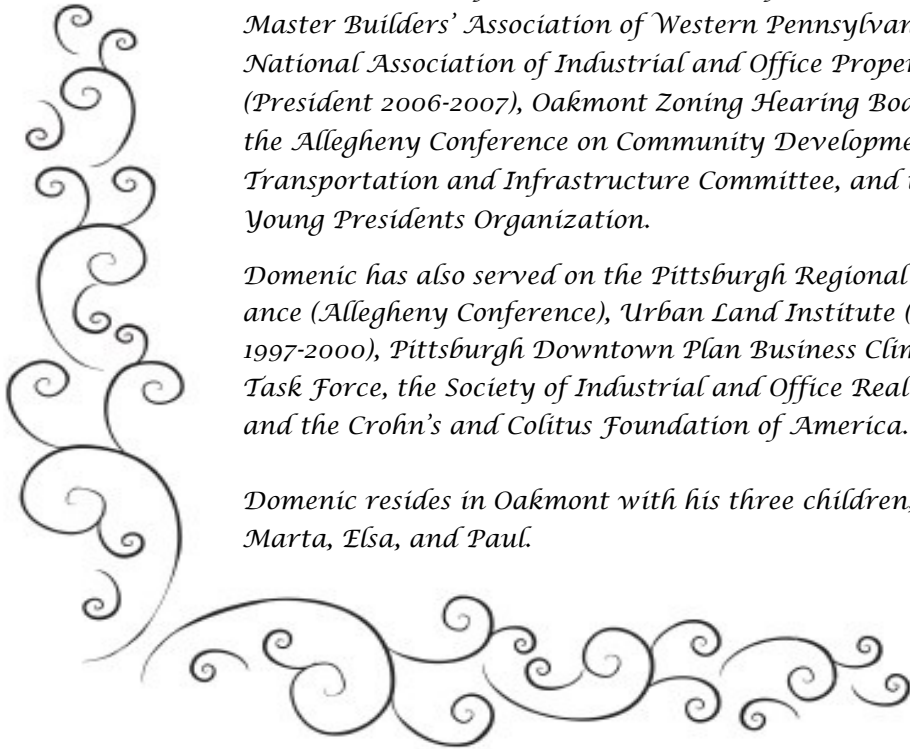

Domenic has been an officer of Jendoco since 1987 and an employee since starting as a field laborer in junior high school. Founded in 1957, Jendoco is a full-service General Contractor and Construction Manager with expertise in new construction, sustainable practices, historic restoration, renovation and adaptive re-use.

As CEO, Domenic is responsible for developing and implementing corporate strategies, making major corporate decisions, and managing the overall operations and resources of the company.

Domenic currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Master Builders' Association of Western Pennsylvania, the National Association of Industrial and Office Properties (President 2006-2007), Oakmont Zoning Hearing Board, the Allegheny Conference on Community Development Transportation and Infrastructure Committee, and the Young Presidents Organization.

Domenic has also served on the Pittsburgh Regional Alliance (Allegheny Conference), Urban Land Institute (Chair 1997-2000), Pittsburgh Downtown Plan Business Climate Task Force, the Society of Industrial and Office Realtors, and the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America.

Domenic resides in Oakmont with his three children, Marta, Elsa, and Paul.

Nicholas Lamia

Nicholas is a 1989 graduate of Riverview and entered the Army after graduation. He served 22 years in the Armed Forces, earning 42 different certifications across a multitude of fields.

Over his career, he served in the John F. Kennedy Special Warfare Center, 112th Special Operations Signal Battalion, Special Operations command- Korea, 7th Special Forces Group, F-Company 51st Infantry Long Range surveillance, 30th Engineer Battalion, Iraqi Assistance Group, 96th Civil Affairs Battalion, and the 3rd Special Forces Group.

As a veteran of the Iraqi War, he was individually selected by the Department of Defense to conduct a Counter Insurgency mission in Iraq. After graduating from the Phoenix Academy in Iraq, Nicholas worked for the Iraqi Assistance Group at Combat Out Post Resolve. He assisted in the capturing of 32 terrorists on direct action missions. Under his team's supervision, the Kurdish battalion captured and processed 276 terrorists in one year. He has also served in Kuwait, Kurdistan, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Korea, Tunisia, Egypt, Okinawa, Japan, and Thailand.

His awards and decorations include the Bronze Star Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal, four Army Commendation Medals, the Joint Service Achievement Medal, six Army Achievement Medals, seven Good Conduct Medals, two National Defense Service Medals, the Korean Defense Service Medal, the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, the Global War on Terrorism Service Medal and many more.

Nicholas currently lives in Fayetteville, North Carolina, with his wife and children. He works for the Program Executive Office for Command Control Communications Tactical as a System Architecture Data Production Analyst.
