Teacher Rachelle Poth Receives The PAECT Outstanding Teacher Award

Rachelle Dene Poth was awarded the Outstanding Teacher of the Year at the Awards Banquet during the PAECT Conference in Hershey, PA. The award recognizes a teacher who demonstrates outstanding achievement and leadership in implementing technology, and who goes above and beyond to improve education.

PAECT (Pennsylvania Association for Educational Communications and Technology), seeks to recognize and celebrate the talents and contributions of individuals who continually exceed expectations in their service. PAECT which is the Pennsylvania affiliate of ISTE, (International Society for Technology in Education) received nominations on her behalf and a committee selected her as the recipient.

PAECT seeks to connect, develop, lead and advocate for educational technology in Pennsylvania. The Riverview team congratulates Rachelle Poth, for her commitment to the SERIOUS SUCCESS of our students.

Academics. Arts. Athletics. Opportunities.
