FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Riverview SAT Scores 2nd in the Alle-Kiski Valley and 10th in Allegheny County

Riverview students continue to rank with the top students in Pennsylvania on the SAT exam. In a recent ranking report from the Pittsburgh Business Times, Riverview High School's SAT scores were highly ranked in both the Alle-Kiski Valley and Allegheny County schools. Riverview ranked 2nd in the Alle-Kiski Valley, and 10th overall in Allegheny County, respectively. Riverview students ranked 55th overall in the state of Pennsylvania, placing their performance in the top 6% of public high schools in the state.

Total scores for the SAT could range from 400-1600. There is no passing grade for the SAT; however, many colleges and universities use SAT scores as a factor in determining whether they will admit a student. Riverview students continue to place themselves advantageously for all post-secondary pursuits.
