

Stuart's Lesson Plans for the weeks May 04 ~ May 08

Kitchen Skills (Foods 1)

This week we are going to be celebrating Cinco De Mayo.

I would like you to find a recipe, online or on Pinterest, for either Guacamole or Salsa. You are to make the dish, marking the celebration.

Please remember to send me a picture.

Enjoy and stay safe.

Consumer Science (Foods 2)

This week we are going to be celebrating Cinco De Mayo.

I want you to do Tacos on Tuesday. Which happens to be Cinco De Mayo.

Have fun and enjoy this fun activity, which you always ask to do in class. (the time has come!)

Remember to send pictures.

Be safe and make wise decisions.

Mrs. Stuart

Stuart's Lesson Plans for the weeks May 2020

Consumer Skills 8th Grade

For the month of May, I am going to email you 4 recipes. I would like you to choose 2 of them and make them sometime in the month.

If you choose to make them all, please feel free, but know that I am only grading 2 of them.

Good luck and have fun. Please send me pics of your final product.

Please stay safe and make wise decisions.

Mrs. Stuart
