

Happy May Family and Students

Here is the 4 day expectation. If all materials are completed I will send you a n optional Fun day Friday field trip. If you are not finished with your assignments Friday can be your catchup day.

I will also send you a daily lesson reminder as well as responding to any texts, emails or phone calls.

Zoom Monday 10:30 resource kiddos only to kick off the week-

Zoom Tuesday 10:30 Mrs. Gross will invite us

Zoom Weds 10:30 resource kiddos to see how we are all doing

I am still eliminating Study Island for a few weeks. (Remember if you are having trouble with iready or you would rather you can use this)

I am keeping spelling lessons and this week again there will be a test..

Continuing literature circle book -The Landry News-I am going to read and go over the literature circle videos and question expectations.

You will continue to have para options daily for Science, Social Studies.

4 day expectations: This will remain the same

ELA-One Read work per day. Please be careful to read/listen carefully to the story and check your responses.-multiple choice responses on the computer-written responses can be on the computer program itself, email, text , scribe or call me and we will go over it together ELA and

Math-One iready Reading one iready Math per day Complete 1 of each per day , take brain breaks as needed per day when the lesson allows .Spelling 4 assignments per week.

Spelling Test Thursday retest Friday

Math-Prodigy 1 lesson per day

We will be doing Zearn Math lessons next week. 3 per week. We will discuss and info will be sent after Zoom meeting on Monday

6th only I will be sending your grade level You Tube links for our read aloud this week only no responses needed to finish. You will finish Monday and can take an AR test

Landry News

- AR is available at home. You should be reading at least 20 minutes per day
- Please complete at least 1 special area assignment per day
- Please work on assigned Science or Social Studies assignment from grade level teachers-Paras are here to help

Be Safe All, Mrs. Beth Funtal

